

DAVID SEOK, CLD, IALD
SENIOR LIGHTING DESIGNER

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE: 13
YEARS WITH FIRM: 10

EXPERIENCE

David Seok joined The Lighting Practice in 2014. In 2019 he was promoted to Senior Lighting Designer and returned to New York to work in The Lighting Practice's NYC office. Prior to joining TLP, he worked as a lighting designer for a Philadelphia area lighting design firm. David's project work includes corporate, education, mixed-use developments, building facades, hospitality, and entertainment environments. His passion for DEI initiatives led him to start a group in the NYC area for Asians in the architectural lighting design community called "Asian Lighting Community". David is recognized as the founding member and co-executive director. Beginning in 2017, David taught lighting design as an adjunct professor for the Drexel University Department of Architecture + Interiors. Recently David was recognized for his leadership in lighting design as one of Light Collective's 40under40 class of 2021.
