

CHRIS B. HALLENBECK

Project Manager

Experience:

Chris Hallenbeck joined The Lighting Practice in 2015. After receiving a BA in Theatre and Computer Science degree from Lehigh University. He pursued his MFA in Theatrical Design of Temple University. Chris has worked on numerous theatrical productions with multiple Philadelphia-based theaters and companies. He is currently managing the ongoing programming for several of our color-changing projects including Avenue of the Arts and the Lit Brothers Building. Chris is excited to develop lighting designs that last. Chris is looking forward to developing designs that will be seen for years to come.

Education:

Master of Fine Art in Theatrical Design, Temple University

Bachelor of Art in Theater and Computer Science, Lehigh University

Professional Awards:

- IESNA International Illumination Awards
 - Award of Merit - 2016, 2020
- IES Philadelphia Section
 - Section Award - 2016, 2020