

DAVID SEOK, CLD, IALD

Senior Lighting Designer

Experience:

David Seok joined The Lighting Practice in 2014. In 2019 he was promoted to Senior Lighting Designer and returned to New York to work in The Lighting Practice's NYC office. Prior to joining TLP, he worked as a lighting designer for a Philadelphia area lighting design firm. David's project work includes corporate, education, mixed-use developments, hospitality and entertainment environments. His passion for design and urban redevelopment has led him to volunteer with Community Design Collaborative and participate in DesignPhiladelphia's 2015 Pearl Street Passage installation project. Beginning in 2017, David has taught lighting design as an adjunct professor for the Drexel University Department of Architecture + Interiors. Recently David was recognized for his leadership in lighting design as one of Light Collective's 40under40 class of 2021.

Education:

Bachelor of Architecture, Drexel University

Professional Awards:

- Light Collective - 40under40 Awards, Class of 2021
- International Illumination Design Awards
 - Award of Merit - 2015, 2017
- IES Philadelphia Section
 - Philament Award - 2015, 2017

Professional Activities & Organizations:

- International Association of Lighting Designers (IALD) - Professional Member
 - IALD New York, Chapter Director + Treasurer
- Illuminating Engineering Society, New York City Section (IESNYC) – Member
- The Designers Lighting Forum of New York (DLFNY) – Member
- Community Design Collaborative - Volunteer
- DesignPhiladelphia - 2015 Pearl Street Passage
- Instructor - IES Fundamentals of Lighting, 2016 to 2018
- Adjunct Professor - Drexel University, Department of Architecture, 2017 to 2019