

EMAD HASAN, IALD, MIES, LEED AP BD+C

Principal, NY Office

Experience:

Emad Hasan joined The Lighting Practice in 2005 after earning a Bachelor of Architectural Engineering with an emphasis in Lighting Design and a Minor in Architectural Studies from The Pennsylvania State University. In 2019, Emad was promoted to Principal of the firm's New York office, overseeing design direction for individual projects, facilitating day-to-day operations, and pursuing new project opportunities through marketing and business development. Emad uses his keen interest in film and photography as inspiration in developing artistic and distinctive lighting design that enhances the architectural and human experience. His passion for lighting design paired with his technical knowledge has informed his project work in a variety of market sectors including academic, civic, corporate, healthcare, hospitality, historic, exterior façades, and more. Emad was recognized by Lighting Magazine for his leadership in lighting design as a 40under40 class of 2017. He is also an active member of the International Association of Lighting Designers and Urban Land Institute.
