

OLIWIA PINE, AIAS

Lighting Designer I

Experience:

Oliwia Pine joined The Lighting Practice in 2019 while earning her Bachelor of Architecture degree at Drexel University. Her passion for architecture peaked Oliwia's interest in lighting design as a profession; she is inspired by the ways that light can highlight architectural elements and features. Since joining TLP, her experience has grown to include lighting for retail and corporate environments. She is an active student member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and often attends their local events. When Oliwia is not working or at school, she is creating jewelry for her Etsy store.
