

REBECCA MINTZ, ASSOC. IALD, LEED AP BD+C, WELL AP, LC
Associate

Experience:

Rebecca Mintz joined The Lighting Practice in 2021 as an Associate. With an A.B. from Brown University and an MFA in Lighting Design from Parsons School of Design, Rebecca has over a decade of designing successful lighting solutions for a variety of sectors including corporate, healthcare, science & technology, and senior living. Rebecca's passion for lighting design started after becoming active in theatre at a young age. After college, she transitioned from theatrical lighting to architectural lighting and the rest is history. In 2019, Rebecca was recognized by Lighting Magazine as one of the 40under40 lighting professionals for her leadership in design. Rebecca is an adjunct faculty member at NYSID and Parsons.

Education:

MFA Lighting Design, Parsons The New School for Design

A.B. Commerce, Organizations, and Entrepreneurship (focus in Business Economics), Brown University

Professional Awards:

- Silhouette Award, 2022
- Lighting Magazine's Global 40 Under 40 (Class of 2019)
- IES Illumination Award of Merit (2013, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2020)

Professional Activities & Organizations:

- Illuminating Engineering Society (IES)
 - BIM Committee
 - Lighting for Videoconference and Presentation Spaces Committee
- Lighting Certified
- LEED Accredited Professional - Building Design + Construction
- WELL Accredited Professional
- International Association of Lighting Designers (IALD) - Associate Member