

BRIAN J. WILEY, ASSOC. IALD, LC
SENIOR LIGHTING DESIGNER

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE: 9
YEARS WITH FIRM: 1.5

EXPERIENCE

Brian joined The Lighting Practice's New York office in 2022. With a background in Interior Architecture and Psychology, he brings a unique perspective to lighting design. Recognized by Lighting Magazine's 40under40 class of 2021 for his leadership in lighting design, he specializes in facade, historic renovation, and hospitality projects. As a former Adjunct Professor at Columbia College Chicago, he inspired future designers. With a commitment to innovation and excellence, Brian crafts transformative lighting solutions that elevate the built environment and enhance the user experience.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Psychology, Grand Valley State University

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Architecture, Columbia College Chicago

MEMBERSHIPS

International Association of Lighting Designers (IALD) - Associate Member

ACCOLADES

National Council On Qualifications For The Lighting Professions - Lighting Certified

AIA Chicago DEA - Honor Award Interior Architecture, 2020, 2021, 2023

AIA Chicago DEA - Honor Award Architecture, 2023

AIA Illinois Honor Awards - The Capitol Award, 2023

AIA Illinois Honor Awards - Excellence in Historic Preservation, 2023

Illuminating Engineering Society (IES) Illumination Awards, Award of Merit, 2020, 2021, 2022

NLB Tesla Award, 2021, 2022

AIA Chicago Design Excellence Award, Divine Detail, 2021

Lighting Magazine's Global Lighting 40 Under 40, 2021

AIA Chicago DEA Interior Architecture Award - Honor Award, 2021

Short List Darc Awards, 2020

IALD Award of Merit, 2020

AIA Chicago DEA - Distinguished Building Award, 2020